

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

I'm interested in ...

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can make suggestions.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can make and accept invitations.

Ask your partner:

- What are your interests? Sports? Movies? Music?
- Do you have hobbies? What are they?

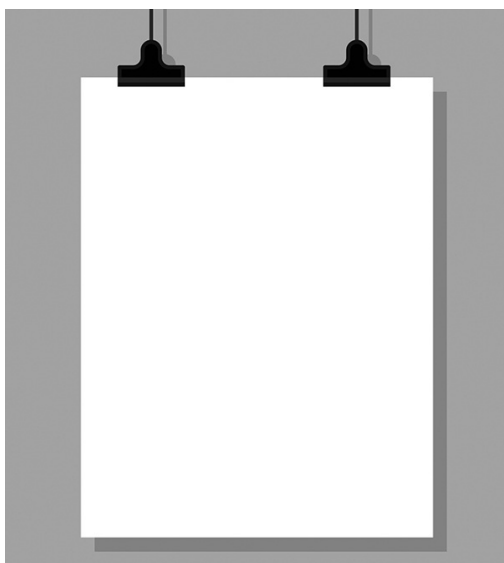

Let's Explore!

Sally needs to buy a present for her nephew. She needs help!

* Another word for "present" is gift.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hello?

Sally: Hi, Vanessa, what are you doing now?

Vanessa: I'm working on an essay. Why?

Sally: I need to get a birthday present for my nephew. Would you like to come shopping with me?

Vanessa: Sure, why not? My assignment is not due until next week.

Sally: I want to buy him something interesting. You're good at selecting gifts for people. Can you help me?

Vanessa: I could try. What are his hobbies or interests?

Sally: He's really into computers and music.

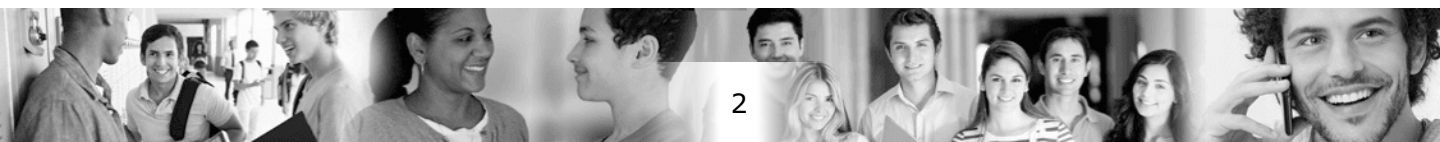

Vanessa: You might buy him a nice pair of headphones.

Sally: I think he has headphones already. He also likes watching films and reading movie scripts.

Vanessa: You could get him a movie poster.

Sally: Cool idea! Can you help me find a poster?

Vanessa: OK!

Let's Practice!

Sally makes a request. How does Vanessa respond?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Choose the correct answer to complete the sentence. Use one of the words in brackets.

Sally: I want to buy him something interesting. You're good at selecting gifts for people.
_____ (Don't, Can) you help me?

Vanessa: I _____ (could, shouldn't) try. What are his hobbies or interests?

Let's Practice!

Sally, Jessica and Sam make invitations. What do Vanessa, Ted and Carlos say?

Instructions: Organize the mystery dialogue. Write each word and punctuation mark in the correct order.

Sally: shopping / like / me / Would / me / to / with / you / come / ?

Vanessa: not / Sure / why / , / ? _____

Jessica: movie / you / to / Do / want / to / go / a / ?

Ted: good / Sounds / OK / .

Sam: join / us / restaurant / you / don't / the / Why / at / ?

Carlos: to / would / I / love / . _____

Extension Activity

Let's talk about people's interests.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Talk to 10 people.
- Ask each person about their hobbies or interests.
- Count the answers.
- Design a graph, like a bar graph, to show the answers.
- Present your graph to a partner or the class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I ask questions about hobbies.

☐ ☐

I ask questions about interests.

☐ ☐

I present the results to a partner or a group.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- nephew (noun): the son of your brother or sister
e.g. I need to get a birthday present for my nephew.
- to be due (expression): used to say something must be submitted at a certain time
e.g. My assignment is due in a week.
- to be into (expression): used to say someone is very interested in something e.g. My brother's really into computers and music.
- movie script (noun): the written form of a film
e.g. He likes watching films and reading movie scripts.
- movie poster (noun): a large paper advertisement for a film e.g. If you know his favorite film, you could get him a movie poster.
- interest (noun): something you like, you are interested in e.g. What are his hobbies or interests?
- headphones (noun): equipment you wear in or on your ears to listen to music
e.g. You might buy him a nice pair of headphones.

Learning Points

Making and Accepting Invitations

You can make invitations in many ways. You use modals like would or should to give offers and invitations.

Here are some casual ways of inviting someone to do something with you, and accepting an invitation.

Making an Invitation	Accepting an Invitation
Would you like to come to my place?	Sure, why not!
Do you want to go to a movie?	OK, sounds good!
Why don't you join us at the restaurant?	I would love to.

Examples:

- Pam: Would you like to see a movie tomorrow night?
- Sam: Sure, why not!

