

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately explain information about interests, hobbies, and preferences in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- When was your last party? What was it for?
- When was your last trip? Where did you go?

Can Do Statements

- I can make suggestions.
- I can make and respond to requests.
- I can say what I would want or prefer to do.
- I can talk about things and actions.

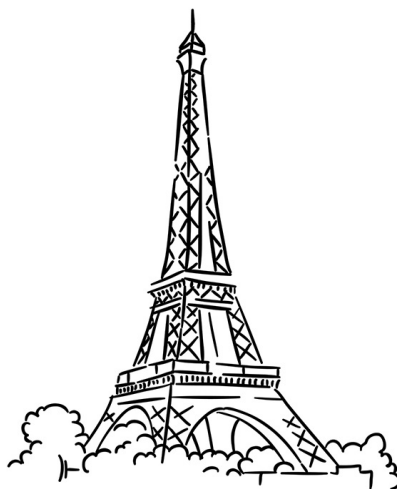

Let's Explore!

Was* the birthday party a surprise? Let's find out!

* You use "was" to talk about events in the past.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: This is a great surprise birthday party, guys!
John: Thanks. So Sally, the countdown is on for your trip!
Sally: Yes, I'm super excited!
John: Could you tell us where you're going?
Sally: Absolutely! I'm going to Paris and Rome.
Vanessa: My nephew went to Paris last year. He loved it.
John: Can you send us e-mails?
Sally: If you don't mind, I would rather not. You can read my blog every day.
Peter: I would prefer to see the pictures.
Vanessa: I agree.
Sally: You can see photos on my blog.
Vanessa: You're so lucky you can take a year off because you won the lottery.
Peter: Sally, remember I gave you that lottery ticket?
Sally: You're the best, Peter!
Peter: You could do something for me.
Sally: What's that, Peter?
Peter: Well ... You might think about sharing the prize.
Sally: What?
Peter: Oh, never mind.

Let's Practice!

John makes requests at the birthday party. What were the responses?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Use the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

John: _____ you tell us where you're going?

Sally: _____ I'm going to Paris and Rome.

John: _____ you send us emails?

Sally: I _____ not. You can read my blog every day.

Peter: I _____ to see the pictures.

Word Bank

Can Could Absolutely! would rather would like

Let's Practice!

People at the birthday party are talking about present and past events. Let's practice speaking!

Instructions: Read the sentences aloud.

This is great surprise birthday party, guys!

Could you tell us where you're going?

I'm going to Paris and Rome.

My nephew went to Paris last year. He loved it.

Extension Activity

Describe a trip you went on, or someone you know went on.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- With a partner, discuss which countries or cities you visited.
- Discuss the places you visited in those countries or cities.
- Draw your route on a map.
- Explain what forms of transportation you used.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I discuss travelling with a partner.

☐ ☐

I report on details of past events.

☐ ☐

I describe transportation.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- countdown (noun): the final moments before an event
e.g. The countdown is on!
- nephew (noun): the son of your brother or sister
e.g. I need to get a birthday present for my nephew.
- I would rather (expression): I would prefer e.g. I would rather sit here.
- to agree (verb): to have the same opinion
e.g. I agree with Carol. We need to monitor our budget.
- take a year off (expression): stop studying or working for one year e.g. Vanessa's trip makes me want to take a year off and travel.

Learning Points

Socializing

To ask about other people, you say: How is ... ? You use wh- questions to ask about people. You use the Simple Present tense to talk about how people are or to give statements that are always true.

When you talk about other people, you want to say what the person does on a regular basis. You use the Present Continuous tense to do this.

The Present Continuous tense shows that an action is happening over a long period of time or on a regular basis.

To ask about a different person, you say: What about ... ?

Examples:

• Peter: How is Vanessa?

Sally: Vanessa is planning her trip to Mexico.

Peter: What about John?

Sally: John is training for a soccer tournament.

