

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's organize a party!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about social occasions.
- I can make suggestions.
- I can say what I would want or prefer to do.

Ask your partner:

- Do you like to attend social occasions?
Why or why not?
- What kind of events do you organize?

Let's Explore!

John, Sally and Peter want to organize a party for Vanessa.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: It's Vanessa's birthday on Saturday! We should organize a party for her.
John: That's in four days. It doesn't give us much time.
Peter: I'm not free on Saturday. I'm having lunch with some relatives.
Sally: Could you make it on Friday?
Peter: No, I promised to help my sister make wedding invitations.
John: I'm attending my niece's concert on Thursday.
Sally: Maybe tomorrow? I know it's last minute, but we should do something!
Peter: Yeah, Vanessa loves to socialize. She would want to have a party.
John: Can we do it at Mineo's?
Sally: I would prefer to do it at my house.
Peter: Great. We could pick up some chips, soda and cake. You can invite Vanessa to your house after 7:00.
Sally: Perfect.

Let's Practice!

Let's talk about social occasions!

Instructions: Match the social occasion on the left with the meaning on the right.

dinner party	a celebration of a wedding
birthday party	a party when you move to a new house
reception	a party before you have a baby
anniversary	a celebration of a person's birthday
baby shower	people socialize when they eat dinner
housewarming	the party after a wedding

Let's Practice!

Would Vanessa want to have a party? You bet!

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Use the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.

We _____ organize a party for her.

We _____ pick up some chips, soda and cake.

You _____ invite Vanessa to your house after 7:00.

Word bank

would could can should

Extension Activity

Compare the way you celebrate different events with a partner.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Choose a social occasion you attended, like a wedding reception or a party.
- Make a list of 5 - 8 details about the event. Where was it? Who attended? What happened?
- Write 5 - 8 sentences about the event.
- With a partner, discuss how social occasions are different.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I identify a social occasion.

☐
☐

I describe the social occasion.

☐
☐

I compare ways to celebrate with a partner.

☐
☐

Target Words

- last minute (noun): organized very recently
e.g. I know it's last minute, but we should do something!
- to socialize (verb): to talk to people for pleasure
e.g. Vanessa loves to socialize.
- wedding (noun): a ceremony uniting two people for life
e.g. I promised to help my sister make wedding invitations.
- it doesn't give us much time (expression): we don't have many days to plan e.g. That's in four days. It doesn't give us much time.
- relative (noun): a person you are connected to by family, but not in your immediate family
e.g. I am having lunch with some relatives this afternoon.
- niece (noun): the daughter of your brother or sister
e.g. I'm attending my niece's concert on Thursday.
- chips (noun): popular snack food made from potatoes
e.g. We could pick up some chips, soda and cake for the party.

Learning Points

Talking About Social Occasions

Social occasions are times people get together for fun. Here are some common social occasions:

dinner party - people socialize when they eat dinner

birthday party - a celebration of a person's birthday

reception - the party after a wedding anniversary - a celebration of a past wedding

baby shower - a party before you have a baby

housewarming - a party when you move to a new house

You can use modals (can, could, should) to make a suggestion about a social occasion. See examples in the chart:

Modals	Suggestion
can	I can invite people to my house.
could	We could organize a birthday party.
should	We should have a baby shower for Heather.

