Let's Start!

Are you ready for college?

Learning Outcome

Describe past experiences in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do the words "college life" make you think of?
- Do you want to go to college? Why or why not?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about past experiences.
- I can talk about school.
- I can use past time expressions.

Let's Explore!

Peter and Sally talk about their weekend. Why did Sally call her college?

* In North America, you go to "college" after high school. A college can be a university or a training center.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Sally: This is amazing chocolate cake.
Peter: You took more than half the piece!
Sally: What?
Peter: I'm just joking. What did you do on the weekend?
Sally: Well, yesterday I had my Spanish class, and after that I went to yoga.
Peter: Oh, nice.
Sally: What about you?
Peter: I was nervous about my report, so the day before yesterday I worked at home. I didn't go to the gym. On Sunday I hung out with some friends.
Sally: Hey, did I tell you? This morning I called the college to see if I could take a year off without losing any credits.
Peter: So, can you?
Sally: Yes, if I have a good GPA I can apply. The deadline to submit my application is next month.
Peter: Sally the world traveler!

Let's Practice!

Past Time Expressions

You use the Simple Past tense to talk about things that happened before.

Many sentences that talk about things that happened in the past use a past time expression to show this.

Here is a list of past time expressions.

last (night / week / year) ...	when I was ...	yesterday (morning / afternoon) ...
this (morning / afternoon) ...	when you were ...	the day before yesterday ...
one year ago ...	in 1990 ...	on Sunday ...

Examples:

Yesterday I had my Spanish class.

This morning I called the college.

The day before yesterday I worked at home.

On Sunday I hung out with some friends.

You can use Wh/Hw questions to request information about past events.

Examples:

When did you go to the park?

What time was your appointment?

How did you injure your leg?

Why did she not come to the party?

You can use the negative form of the past to answer questions.

Examples:

I didn't go to the park last night.

I didn't have an appointment yesterday.

College Life

Here are some words and expressions about college.

You need to apply and to be accepted before you can go to a college.

To apply to a college, you submit an application.

A deadline is the date you need to do something before, like submit your application.

Credits are points that a student obtains after they finish a course. In North America, students usually get 3 - 6 credits for a course.

Grades are the evaluation of a student's performance in a course. Grades are often letters with symbols + or - (A+, B-, etc.).

A GPA (Grade Point Average) is the summary of a student's grades in all courses. In North America, a GPA is measured by a number out of 4. A GPA of 3.2 is very good.
