Let's Start!

Let's go to a restaurant!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food.
- I can say what I would want and/or prefer to do.
- I can talk about other people.

Ask your partner:

- What do you talk about in a restaurant?
- Where do you prefer to sit?

Let's Explore!

Sally and Peter go to a restaurant. Peter wants to order a pizza. What about Sally?

* After the verb "want", you use a verb in the infinitive form (to + verb).

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Hey Sally!
Sally: Hi! Do you want to sit by the window?
Peter: I would rather sit here. Shall we have a pizza?
Sally: I would prefer to order a salad. How's the new job?
Peter: Busy. I want to finish a report before tomorrow. How is Vanessa?
Sally: Vanessa is good. She's planning her trip to Mexico. It makes me want to take a year off and travel.
Peter: What about John?
Sally: John is training for a soccer tournament. Oh, here's the waiter.
Waiter: Good afternoon. Would you like to see the menu?
Sally: No thanks, that's OK. I'll have the salad.
Peter: And I'll have the pizza.

Let's Practice!

Sally would prefer to sit by the window. Where would Peter rather sit?

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Use the phrases from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Sally: _____ to sit by the window?

Peter: I _____ sit here. Shall we have a pizza?

Sally: I _____ to order a salad. How's the new job?

Peter: Busy. I _____ finish a report before tomorrow.

Learning Points

Talking About Other People

To ask about other people, you say: How is ... ?

You use wh- questions to ask about people. You use the Simple Present tense to talk about how people are or to give statements that are always true.

When you talk about other people, you want to say what the person does on a regular basis or at a particular time.

You use the Present Continuous tense to do this.

The Present Continuous tense shows that an action is happening over a short period of time or on a regular basis in a current period.

To ask about a different person, you say: What about ... ?

Examples:

• Peter: How is Vanessa?

Sally: Vanessa is good. She is planning her trip to Mexico.

Peter: What about John?

Sally: John is training for a soccer tournament. It makes him want to eat pizza.
