Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Sally and Peter plan to catch up after a long time.

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information involving apologies, thanks, suggestions and invitations in communicative situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the controlled vowel sound er.
- I can say simple statements.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Ask your partner:

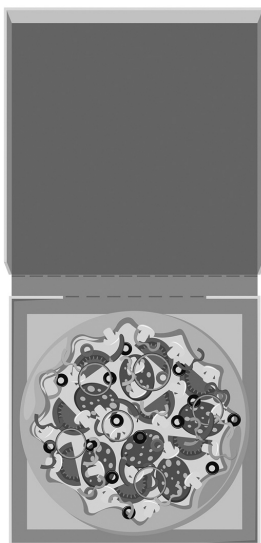

- Where do you 'catch up' with friends?
At the park? A restaurant?
- Are you good at keeping in touch with your friends? Why or why not?

Let's Explore!

Sally and Peter meet up outside Ned's cafe. Listen to the conversation.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hey Peter.
Peter: Hi Sally. How are you?
Sally: Great! Long time no see. What have you been up to?
Peter: I've been busy at work.
Sally: Oh ... internships are hard. There is so much to learn.
Peter: Yes ... So many e-mails and reports. Argh!
Sally: How about we meet up for pizza to catch up?
Peter: When?
Sally: Either today or tomorrow. Are you free?
Peter: I'm going to a friend's birthday dinner tonight. Tomorrow?
Sally : No problem. Shall I make a reservation at Mineo's? At 6:30?
Peter: Can you make it 7:00 p.m.? I have to write a 1,000 word report first.
Sally: Sure. I'll be there a little early. I'll order us some drinks and garlic bread. Is Hawaiian still your favorite?
Peter: Absolutely! See ya tomorrow.
Sally: Ciao.

Let's Practice!

Time to practice using the r-controlled sound er.

Instructions: Read the sentences aloud.

Let's Practice!

Let's practice intonation in sentences.

Instructions: Choose the correct intonation for each question. Circle one of the words in brackets.

1. Peter: Hi Sally. How are you? (Falling tone, Rising tone, Same tone)
2. Peter: Can you make it 7:00 p.m.? (Rising tone, Falling tone, Same tone)
3. Sally: Long time no see. What have you been up to? (Falling tone, Rising tone, Same tone)
4. Sally: Either today or tomorrow. Are you free? (Rising tone, Falling tone, Same tone)

Extension Activity

If you could catch up with anyone, who would it be?

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Make a list of five people you want to go to dinner with.
- What questions do you want to ask them about their lives? Example: What do you like for dessert? Use a word with the er sound in each question like mother, brother, and spider.
- Use rising intonation if it is a yes/no question. Use falling intonation if it is a Wh- question.
- Write the five questions.
- Read each question aloud.

Learning Points

Intonation and Prominence

Intonation

Intonation: The rise and fall of your tone of voice when you speak. Wh- questions end in a falling tone. Yes/No questions end in a rising tone.

The meaning of what you say depends on the tone or pitch of your voice.

Prominence

Prominence: The emphasis you put on a word in a phrase or sentence to show that it is important. It is usually the last content word in a short sentence.

A syllable can be made prominent using loudness, pitch and length.

In the examples, words with rising intonation have CAPITAL letters. Words with prominence have CAPITAL AND BOLD letters.

Examples:

- Peter WALKED in the DARK.
- Sally SAT in the LAST ROW.
- Which CREDit CARD COMpanies CHARGE an ANNual FEE?
